The Overdirection af the Swedish Red Cross has for the celebration of the 60-years birthday of its president H. R.H. Prince Charles have let coined two silvermedals, one larger à 56 m/m and one smaller à 45 m/m, of which latter one
./1. example in bronze is enclosed. Each medal has been coined in series of 110 and has the larger one been offered to the personal friends and nearest fellow-workers of H.R.H. and the smaller one to other persons interested of the Red Cross' work, and is the profit hereof meant for the advancement of the activity of the Red Cross.

Of each series of medals one example has been coined in gold, of which the larger one on the festival has been presented to H.R.H. the President.

The Overdirection has now the honour to ask if the American Numismatic Society wishes to obtain the smaller goldmedal.

As otherwise the goldmedal only has been delivered to the Royal President of the Red Cross, who has entirely devoted himself to the work of the Red Cross, considers the Overdirection it necessary by its attainment fix conditions whose fulfilments make possible an active support of the activity of the Red Cross and commands therefore for the medal a prize of 10.000 swedish crowns.

If some of the members of the Society wish to obtain an example of the smaller silvermedal, a limited number can still be obtained to a prize of 75 swedish crowns each.

Gentlemen:

Your favour to us concerning the Swedish Red Cross medals commemorating the 60th birthday of H.R.H. Prince Charles is at hand.

On account of our limited income we are unable to purchase many medals - especially medals in gold. We thank you very much for the offer to obtain one of these.

We will call the attention of our members to the silver medal which you issued, but as we shall have no further meetings until the autumn, we shall not be able to see many of our members.

Very truly yours,

Curator
